This is the last weekend to use the current Sunday Missal. If you would like to purchase a 2022-2023 Sunday Missal for yourself, the parish is selling them for $5.00 each. Please see staff at the counter in the church foyer and please have the exact amount as no change will be available.

Advent Holy Hour with Meditative Music

Please join us in beginning the busy season of Advent with a Holy Hour on Sunday, November 27, 2022 at 2:00 p.m. It will feature Exposition, Taizé chants, meditative music, prayers and quiet time.

Sometimes in all our preparation for Christmas - the shopping, baking, gift wrapping, parties and visiting people - we neglect to prepare our hearts for the true meaning of Christmas, the coming of the Christ child. Please take an hour out of your busy schedule to quiet your heart and worship the Lord.

Link to the All Saints Talk

For those who missed the talk on All Saints Day, the recording is now available on YouTube! You can watch it at <https://youtu.be/LA7qHvUkhos>.

The slides used in the talk as well as a link to buy the book "Pray for Us" can be downloaded at <https://stjohntheevangelistwe.archtoronto.org/.../al/.../>

The book "Pray for Us" is the book that Fr. Maderak has speaking about in his homilies and it was also the book that was inspiration for the All Saints talk.

Sick: That they know the presence of Jesus Christ in their life, especially, Teresa Borrelli and Marina Stark.

Deceased: That the dead may rejoice forever in Christ's kingdom and have the fullness of life, especially Rev. Paul Gaudet & Rev. Msgr. Edmond Putrimas.

Pope's November Prayer Intention: For children who suffer - We pray for the children who are suffering, especially those who are homeless, orphans, and victims of war; may they be guaranteed access to education and the opportunity to experience family affection.

Society of Saint Vincent de Paul Advent Collection - November 26/27

The Society of St. Vincent de Paul operates within the boundaries of our parish, providing assistance to Weston's most needy. The Society relies solely on donations made by our parishioners in order to fulfil our mission of service to those in need. The Advent Collection represents the major amount we receive to sustain our annual voucher distribution, including the Christmas holidays which is our busiest time of year.

On behalf of The Society of St. Vincent de Paul and the families living within our parish, SVDP would like to extend our grateful thanks to our past and future donors and we look forward to your continued support. God Bless.

Our offertory is often times 50% below what we need to operate the parish whenever there is a second collection. Please do not redirect your weekly offertory to second collections. The cost of everything is increasing and our revenue is not.

2022 ShareLife $1 Million Matching Gift Program

Recognizing the needs of the agencies and those who turn ShareLife for help, an anonymous donor has come forward with a $1 million matching gift challenge! From November 1 to December 31, all contributions to the Parish Campaign will be matched by an anonymous donor up to a total of $1 million. We hope this initiative will encourage those who have not given yet, as well as those who have given reduced amounts this year, to make a year-end gift to support the vulnerable members of our community.

St. John the Evangelist's parish goal this year is $42,000.00. To date we have achieved $35,610.70. To participate, parishioners can give online at: stjohntheevangelistwe.archtoronto.org or at <https://sharelife.org/donate/>. You may also give at the parish by using the ShareLife envelopes.

INDULGENCES AND OUR SPIRITUAL LIFE

Indulgences have been a part of Catholic devotional life for centuries. While often misunderstood, the practice of granting and obtaining indulgences is deeply rooted in Sacred Scripture and Church teaching. Indulgences inspire us to live more fruitful and holy lives, and thereby lead us to a more intimate union with Christ and with his Church.

In 2006, the English edition of the Holy See's 1999 revised Manual of Indulgences was published by the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops. This bulletin insert provides the opportunity to explain briefly the meaning and importance of indulgences for the spiritual life of the Christian faithful.

WHAT ARE INDULGENCES?¹

Indulgences are a part of the Church's teaching on the forgiveness of sins. Through the Sacrament of Baptism, we receive forgiveness for our sins, and all punishment is remitted. Through the Sacrament of Penance, sins are also forgiven, and the eternal penalty that is due to sin—namely, damnation, the eternal loss of the presence of God—is taken away. However, consequences still remain that the sinner must bear. This is what is traditionally called the temporal punishment for sin.

By its very nature, every sin inevitably causes suffering for the one who has committed it. Every sinful act creates disorder within the soul of the human person. Sin also disrupts one's relationships with God, with the Church, with other people, and with the world as a whole. Those who have received forgiveness for their sins may still have an obligation to undergo a process of purification and to restore these disrupted relationships. The necessary and painful process that brings this reconciliation and purification can take place either in this life or in Purgatory, because whatever part of the process remains unfinished at death must be completed in Purgatory.²

Through an indulgence, God grants that through the prayer of the Church the temporal penalty for sin due to someone be reduced (as in the case of a partial indulgence) or be eliminated (as in the case of a plenary indulgence). By God's grace, participation in a prayer or action that has an indulgence attached to it brings about the necessary reconciliation without the suffering that would normally accompany it. The granting of an indulgence by the Church is "the expression of the Church's full confidence of being heard by the Father when—in view of Christ's merits and, by his gift, those of Our Lady and the saints—she asks him to mitigate or cancel the painful aspect of punishment by fostering its medicinal aspect through other channels of grace."³

HOW CAN INDULGENCES REMOVE SOME OR ALL OF THE TEMPORAL PUNISHMENT OF SIN?

It is because of the Communion of Saints and the graciousness of God, our Father, that some or all of the temporal punishment for sin is removed. Although we always have to face the consequences of our sins in the form of the temporal punishment for sin, as members of the Body of Christ we are never simply on our own. We are linked with Christ and with the martyrs and saints, and we benefit from their holiness in such a way as to be freed from at least a portion of the temporal punishment for sin. "In this wonderful exchange, the holiness of one profits others, well beyond the harm that the sin of one could cause others."⁴

As a result of the communion that exists between Christ and all the members of the Church, the Church has a treasury of inexhaustible benefits that flow from Christ's Passion, death, and Resurrection. Since the martyrs and saints have accomplished all that they have in union with Christ, these benefits also include the value of their prayers and good works. "This treasury also includes the truly immense, unfathomable and ever pristine value before God of the prayers and good works of the Blessed Virgin Mary and all the saints, who following in the footsteps of Christ the Lord and by his grace have sanctified their lives and fulfilled the mission entrusted to them by the Father. Thus while attaining their own salvation, they have also cooperated in the salvation of their brothers in the unity of the Mystical Body."⁵

Through her union with Christ, the Church has the authority to dispense these benefits. As a means of encouraging the faithful to perform good works and acts of devotion, and so to grow in holiness, the Church offers indulgences. To receive a plenary indulgence, in addition to a good work or act of devotion prescribed by the Church, it is required that we (1) make a sacramental confession, (2) receive Holy Communion, (3) pray for the intentions of the Holy Father, and (4) be completely detached from all sin.⁶ If these conditions are only incompletely fulfilled, the indulgence obtained will be only partial.

In receiving indulgences, we should not think that we have earned them. Our efforts express our openness to receiving God's mercy. As a result, we grow closer to Jesus and so are able to reap the benefit of his salvation.

HOW DOES ONE GAIN AN INDULGENCE?

Plenary indulgences are attached to certain prayers and to certain devotional or charitable practices that we undertake with the intention of making the needed reparation. Examples of such practices approved by the Church include Eucharistic adoration that lasts at least one half hour, devout recitation of the Marian rosary, prayerful reading of Sacred Scripture, the making of the Way of the Cross, participation in a Eucharistic procession on the Solemnity of the Body and Blood of Christ, and participation in a parish mission.⁷

Besides particular prayers and devotions, the Church also grants partial indulgences connected to the following four general areas of action, which can be undertaken in the more ordinary circumstances of everyday life:

- Pious invocation. Recalling St. Paul's exhortation to "rejoice in hope, endure in affliction, persevere in prayer" (Rom 12:12), the first general area applies "to the Christian faithful who, while carrying out their duties and enduring the hardships of life, raise their minds in humble trust to God and make, at least mentally, some pious invocation."⁸
- Gift of self or goods. St. Paul also teaches, "Do not grow slack in zeal, be fervent in spirit, serve the Lord. . . . Contribute to the needs of the holy ones, exercise hospitality" (Rom 12:11, 13). This second general area applies "to the faithful who, led by the spirit of faith, give compassionately of themselves or of their goods to serve their brothers [and sisters] in need."⁹
- Voluntary abstinence. Jesus said, "If anyone wishes to come after me, he must deny himself and take up his cross daily and follow me" (Lk 9:23). The third general area applies "to the Christian faithful who, in a spirit of penance, voluntarily abstain from something that is licit for and pleasing to them."¹⁰
- Witness of faith. Jesus promised, "Everyone who acknowledges me before others I will acknowledge before my heavenly Father" (Mt 10:32). The fourth general area applies "to the Christian faithful who, in the particular circumstances of daily life, voluntarily give explicit witness to their faith before others."¹¹

The Church's longstanding tradition of granting and obtaining indulgences inspires within us a desire to live more virtuously as Christian disciples. In drawing closer to Jesus, we renew our hope for reconciliation, and we bear witness to our trust in our merciful Father.

EXAMPLES OF PRAYERS TO WHICH INDULGENCES ARE ATTACHED

The following prayers are from the Manual of Indulgences.

Prayer After Holy Communion (Anima Christi)

Soul of Christ, sanctify me.
Body of Christ, save me.
Blood of Christ, inebriate me.
Water from the side of Christ, wash me.
Passion of Christ, strengthen me.
O good Jesus, hear me.
Within thy wounds hide me.
Suffer me not to be separated from thee.
From the malicious enemy defend me.
In the hour of my death call me.
And bid me come to thee,
That with thy saints I may praise thee
for ever and ever.
Amen.

Prayer Before the Blessed Sacrament (O sacrum convivium)

O sacred banquet, in which Christ is received, the memory of his Passion is renewed, the mind is filled with grace, and a pledge of future glory is given to us.

Prayer Before Any Work (Actiones nostras)

Direct, we beseech thee, O Lord, all our actions by thy holy inspiration, carry them on by thy gracious assistance, that every word and work of ours may always begin from thee and by thee be happily ended. Amen.

Prayer to One's Guardian Angel (Angele Dei)

Angel of God, my guardian dear, to whom his love entrusts me here, enlighten and guard, rule and guide me. Amen.
