Masses For The Week

In Loving Remembrance

We may ask the question, "Why pray for the dead?" The Church teaches us that for those who are already in heaven we are not praying for them but we are rather asking them to intercede, for us and others, before the throne of God. We are also thanking God for their lives, examples and many graces that have come upon the world through their intercession. For those who have not yet reached heaven, but are in purgatory, we are assisting them in their struggle of purification. This is a great help to them and we will only know in the next world how much it meant to them. Before her death St. Monica said to her son St. Augustine, "Bury my body wherever you will;...One thing only I ask you, that you remember me at the altar of the Lord wherever you may be."

During the month of November a Book of Remembrance containing the names of deceased relatives and friends will be placed near the statue of Our Lady. You are invited to write in the names of your recently deceased relatives or friends. The November Masses listed below will be offered for the names in our Book of Remembrance and also for the names identified on the All Souls envelopes.

All Souls envelopes may be dropped in the offertory baskets at Sunday Mass. Envelopes for All Souls can be found in the foyer or in your box set of Sunday Offering envelopes.

Raising a Saint:

Interview with St. Carlo Acutis' Mother

In light of St. Carlo Acutis' canonization, Catholic Moms Group recently shared their interview with his mother, Antonia Salzano, on their YouTube program Midday Moms with Dorothy Pilarski.

"Carlo used to say that the Eucharist was his highway to heaven," says Salzano, speaking of her son - now the first millennial saint in the Catholic Church.

To watch the interview, please see below.
